This week we started streaming our services to our website and to YouTube.

It has not been without some technical problems but, rest assured, we are learning all the time, and very much hope you will see an improved experience as we go along.

Services will continue for the foreseeable future using this streaming technology on Sundays at 10AM (which will be a sung Eucharist with hymns and a motet). We will also continue to stream our said Eucharist on Wednesdays (also at 10AM).

If you are having any difficulty in getting to our services, please email Chris - c.gadd@stgeorges.church (though not during the services as he is doing his best to produce the service!)

As a reminder, the best place to go to see the service if using a laptop or other computer is our website – go to <http://www.stgeorgesnews.org/resources.html>

If, instead, you have a TV with YouTube on it then simply search for St George's Church Waterlooville and you should find us there.

We have heard and read some wonderfully positive responses to our streamed services (even with the problems) so thank you so much for that.

If you would like to read a lesson or just join on-screen so that you can say the responses to Fr Colin (so that he feels less alone!) please email Chris or Fr Colin himself (parish.priest@stgeorges.church).

Whilst our parish life has been significantly disrupted, the business of running our church of course needs to continue as best as we can. Here is our Fabric and Finance committee meeting this week by Zoom!

We extend our continued thanks to all those who are working so hard to keep in touch with members of our Parish and / or are delivering shopping or medicines etc.

This is an ongoing challenge, of course, and we would like to share the load as much as we possibly can. If you would like to assist please email Anne Morgan (a.morgan@stgeorges.church) or telephone her on 02392 358766.

We will be having a Mass for Ascension Day at 7:30PM on Thursday 21st May (either virtual/streamed or in church – to be advised nearer the time).

.....

Note from Rosemary Monk - Thank you to everyone who came to Lent Lunches. Unfortunately, it was not possible to hold the third one. However, a total of £133 has been sent to Christian Aid.
