Hands on with Handel - Saturday November 22nd. As part of the Royal College of Organists 'Play the Organ 2025' campaign, the Royal School of Church Music are calling all organists to be 'Hands on with Handel' to see many simultaneous performances of Handel's Largo they can achieve nationally at 2pm on Saturday November 22nd to mark St. Cecilia's day (St Cecilia being the patron saint of music!).

David Cain, our own Director of Music, is taking part and will give an organ concert at 1 pm on November 22nd, finishing with Handel's Largo, to which all are welcome. Suggestions of organ pieces for the rest of the concert would be gratefully received (in advance!) and if you have a favourite piece you would like to hear please let David know. Free soup and rolls will be served from 12.45. The concert is also free with a retiring collection and any donations made will be in aid of RSCM's work with organists and young people.

Horndean Amateur Theatre will be performing "The Lady Vanishes" – a tale made famous by the Alfred Hitchcock film – at St George's on Wed 26th, Fri 28th and Sat 29th November. Tickets are £8 and are available on the door or from www.ticketsource.co.uk/hat. Shows start at 7.30pm (doors open 7pm).

St George's Legacy Policy: We welcome all gifts in wills, however large or small, and we promise to use your gift to make a difference in our parish. Our PCC legacy policy is to use gifts to help fund significant development projects, whether buildings, equipment, mission or staff. Since needs change, we encourage you to leave a gift in your will for the general purposes of the parish rather than a restricted purpose. We will discuss possible uses of your gift with your executors when the time comes, bearing in mind your known areas of interest (eg music, buildings, children and youth, overseas mission or aid) and the church's priorities at the time. You can be confident that your gift will be used to make a real difference to our future mission and ministry.

The Parents and Toddlers group will be taking a break now until the New Year. The children's Christmas party will go ahead on Tuesday December 16th 9.30am – 11am when Fr Christmas will be in attendance, all are welcome.
